

Lanaken

Map of Lanaken, Belgium, showing a blue shaded area covering most of the town. The map includes various streets and landmarks, such as the Maas river and the Tournebride. The blue shaded area is irregularly shaped, following the main street grid and avoiding the river and some peripheral areas. The map also shows green spaces, likely parks or forests, and the Maas river flowing through the town. The title 'Lanaken' is located in the top left corner.
